Junior Ambassador Contest
General Rules & Information
2022-2023

Who is eligible?

1. Age: The E.T.I. National Jr. Ambassador contest is open to all young women and young men who have reached the following ages as of January 1, 2022. Each contestant 18 years of age or younger shall have a legal guardian, parent, or chaperone over the age of 21, who shall be responsible for that contestant during their reign.

Queen/King.....16-21 years of age
Junior Miss/Junior Prince.....12-15 years of age
Little Miss/Little Prince.....7-11 years of age

Jr. Miss/Prince and Little Miss/Prince may be combined if not enough entrants

2. Marital Status: All contestants must be unmarried at the time of the competition and shall remain unmarried during the time of their reign. All contestants must not have any children at the time of competition or during the time of their reign.
3. Membership: Each contestant must have been an active member of E.T.I. for a minimum of six months prior to application to the Jr. Ambassador Program. All contestants' membership must remain current during program duration. No members at large.
4. Outgoing Queen/King, Jr. Miss/Jr. Prince and Little Miss/Little Prince may not succeed themselves. Except when status is "pro-tem" then that individual may run again for title.

To Apply:

5. Application forms may be obtained from your National Ambassador Chairperson, E.T.I. Office or Corral President.
6. Entry: Contestants are responsible for their own entry. Applications shall be submitted with ALL REQUIRED SIGNATURES, APPLICATIONS FEES, SPONSORSHIPS, PROOF OF HORSE OWNERSHIP OR LEASE, AUTOBIOGRAPHY, COPY OF E.T.I. MEMBERSHIP, AND (1) 5 x 7 COLOR PHOTOGRAPH to the National Ambassador Chairperson or the E.T.I. office and a copy of the same picture emailed to eti-@etinational.com no later than the due date.
7. Deadline: All applications must be received no later than April 4, 2022. The Jr. Ambassador program has the right to return any applications that are not completed; and to close a division if there are not enough entries.
8. Application Fee: A fee of $100.00 shall accompany each application. This fee includes the cost of the contestant's participation in the Crowning Dinner, and one box stall for their horse for the length of convention. This does not include tack rooms. This can be done by sponsorships also. Make all checks payable to the E.T.I. Jr. Ambassador Program.

9. Sponsorships: To be eligible to compete, each contestant must furnish a minimum of $150.00 in sponsorships-minimum amount of $10.00 for a sponsor ($25.00 sponsors receive a business card ad in the Equestrian Trails Magazine.) There is a minimum for sponsorships but no maximum. Please collect business cards from sponsors that donate $25.00 or more.
10. Photographs: Each contestant shall submit (1) 5 x 7 COLOR portrait style photo and email same photo to equestriantrails@outlook.com. The picture shall be of the contestant in their show attire, that included; according to the horsemanship division the contestant has entered. A professional will judge the photographs and a special Photogenic Award will be given.
11. Horse Ownership or Lease: The horse ridden by the contestant shall be owned by that Contestant or a member of the immediate family, or shall be leased by the contestant. Proof of ownership or lease must accompany the application. In case of illness or injury to the horse, which has been sustained by a veterinarian's statement and submitted to the National Ambassador Chairman, a substitute may be used. In the event of a substitution, E.T.I. may have the injury independently verified at no cost to the contestant.
12. Corral Contestants: All corrals planning to send contestants may send as many in each category, as desired. It is also recommended that corrals conduct their contestants according to, and in compliance with these rules.
13. No stallions shall be ridden in the contest or at any of the Jr. Ambassador events.

Competition: Awards will be given for Photogenic, Friendship, Written Test, Personality & Poise, and Horsemanship.

14. Areas of Competition: Each contestant will be judged in 3 categories: Written Test (40 points), Personality & Poise (80) Points, and Horsemanship (80 points).
15. Scoring: The scoring will be based upon the highest possible score of 200 + bonus points.
16. Written Test: Each contestant will complete a test on knowledge of equine's equestrian related activities, and E.T.I. The information will be passed out to each contestant at the first contestant meeting. Areas of study will include: parts of horse, tack, horse care, equine health, E.T.I. and the history of E.T.I.
17. Personality & Poise: Each contestant shall appear in an open interview at the Jr. Ambassador Banquet before a panel of 3 to 4 judges.
18. Horsemanship: Each contestant will enter a horsemanship division but all divisions will ride a pattern based on the discipline chosen by the applicant. Little Miss/Prince will complete their pattern at a walk/jog/trot only.
19. Protests: Protests concerning the eligibility of a contestant and/or their horse shall be in writing to the E.T.I. National Chairperson, accompanied by a deposit of $100.00 cash, and submitted no later than two hours following the horsemanship test. The protest shall state the full name of the protester and shall contain a complete and definite statement of the allegations. A protest committee, consisting of the Jr. Ambassador Chairman, and 2 members of the E.T.I. National Board of Directors (appointed by the Convention Chairman) will investigate and rule upon all protests. If the protest is not sustained, the $100.00 deposit will be forfeited to the Jr. Ambassador Program.

20. Withdrawals: If, after the closing of the National Jr. Ambassador entries, a contestant must withdraw, all fees and sponsorships will be forfeited.
21. Disqualification: Violation of any contest rule shall automatically disqualify a contestant. Inappropriate behavior, i.e., language or conduct may be subject to review and disqualification. Contestants or members of the Jr. Ambassador Court shall not consume any alcoholic beverages or use any form of tobacco products, regardless of their age, at any E.T.I. event. See Code of Conduct.
22. The final decision regarding the eligibility or disqualification of a contestant is vested with the National Ambassador Chairman and National Board of Directors.
23. Each Contestant and their chaperone are expected to attend all functions and meetings required for the Jr. Ambassador contest. There are no allowances made for make-up tests. Therefore, should a contestant and their chaperone not attend each of the required functions, they would automatically become ineligible to continue in the contest and forfeit all fees and sponsorships. Contestants are required to help at the E.T.I. National Horse Show & Convention, if contestants are competing at convention, we ask that the contestant help between events or when there is a break.

When Selected for the National Court:

24. Representing E.T.I. the newly selected ambassador's and their courts will be expected, as part of their duties, to represent E.T.I. at official functions and events, such as dinners, meetings, parades, trail trials, shows, etc.... these functions will be selected and approved by the Jr. Ambassador Chairman.
25. Service Hours: During their reign, each member is required to donate a minimum of 10 volunteer hours in the community and 50 volunteer hours of E.T.I. events service. A report of progress/hours will be due in February 2023. Please contact the Jr. Ambassador Chairman with any questions on what counts as volunteer hours. The schedule of events will also count towards these hours. A maximum of 2 unexcused absences is allowed-anymore and you may be removed from the court. Excused absences may include illness etc.
26. Next Year's Contest: It is required that all reigning Jr. Ambassadors and their courts attend the following year's competition events: the Jr. Ambassador Luncheon, E.T.I. Convention, and any others that may arise.
27. Costs: There will be no costs to reigning Queen/King, Jr. Miss/Jr. Prince, and Little Miss/Little Prince at National dinners and the following years Luncheon. These will be covered by the Jr. Ambassador program. All other court members' cost will be determined depending upon the Jr. Ambassador Budget. There is no other monetary compensation.
28. Appropriate attire must be worn while attending E.T.I. events. Clothing must be in good taste and good repair. Good grooming is a must. Your appearance in public is important and you should appear neat and clean. Any obvious body piercing (excluding earrings) or tattoos shall remain not visible to others. See Code of Conduct.
29. The Queen/King, Jr. Miss/Jr. Prince, and Little Miss/Little Prince shall not hold any other titles from other contests/pageants during their reign, which might conflict with the duties of the E.T.I. Jr. Ambassador Program.

30. Crowns and Sashes: It is the responsibility of the Jr. Ambassador to keep their sash and crown in good condition. Any cost for the breakage of crowns or disrepair of their sash will be the responsibility of the Jr. Ambassador.
31. Consequences: Any non-compliance with the rules, after being named on the Jr. Ambassador Court, will be reviewed by the Jr. Ambassador Chairman and Co-chairman and the E.T.I. National Board of Directors. Removal from the court will be considered at that time.

PERSONALITY & POISE

There will be an award given for Personality & Poise for three divisions.
